ADVERTISING RATES FOR THE ROCKET'S BLAST - COMICOLLECTOR

REGULAR CLASSIFIED ADS: All of these type ads will be reduced to 1/3 their size. Therefore, a full page ad (8½ x 11) would be about 1/3 of a page when printed. Nothing will be left out, the type size will just be reduced. All ads of this type should be submitted typed (if possible) on WHITE paper only. Type only on a black ribbon that is not worn out, because if it is too light, it will reproduce poorly. Observe normal margins. The rate for these is $1.25 per page. We must reserve the right to reassemble (only, if necessary) your ads of this type to fill out the page. For smaller ads, the rate is 1¢ per line (7 lines typed line).

SPECIAL 75% CLASSIFIED ADS: These 75% ads are reduced to only 1/2 their size, instead of 1/3. Therefore, a full page ad (8½ x 11) would be about a half page when printed up. The rate for this type is $2.50 per page. Submit as above, and again we reserve the right to reassemble (only if necessary).

SPECIAL CLASSIFIED ADS: These are printed as is. Therefore if you submit a full page (8½ x 11), it will be 8½ x 11 when printed up. Submit in the same manner as above.

HERE IS AN IMPORTANT WAY YOU CAN SAVE MONEY ON YOUR RBCC ADVERTISING: SAY, FOR INSTANCE, YOU HAVE A THREE PAGE AD THAT YOU WANT TO RUN AT THE "REGULAR" RATE OF $5.55 PER PAGE. THAT WOULD COST YOU A TOTAL OF $16.65. NOW HOWEVER, HERE IS HOW YOU COULD RUN IT FOR ONLY $14.00. YOUR THREE PAGE AD RUN "REGULAR" WOULD COME OUT 8½ x 11 WHEN PRINTED UP. THEREFORE, IF YOU SUBMIT YOUR AD ALREADY LAYED OUT AND TYPED UP ON A SHEET 13½ INCHES WIDE AND 17½ INCHES LONG (WHICH WILL BE REDUCED DOWN TO 8½ x 11), YOU CAN RUN IT AT THE "SPECIAL" RATE OF $14.00 AND SAVE $2.75. YOU "MAKE UP SHEETS" CAN BE MADE BY USING A CELLOPHANE TAPE AND REGULAR WHITE PAPER, TAPING THEM SO THAT THEY FIT THE MEASUREMENTS. THEN YOU CAN TYPE UP YOUR AD ON OTHER PAPER AND GLUE IT ON THE MAKE UP SHEET AND MAKE YOUR OWN LAYOUT. THIS ENABLES YOU TO MAKE YOUR OWN LAYOUT, WHICH WILL BE PRINTED JUST AS YOU SUBMIT IT, PROVIDING YOU FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS. REMEMBER, ALWAYS USE A GOOD DARK RIBBON.

ALSO, IF YOU ARE GOING TO SUBMIT A TWO PAGE AD AT THE "75%" RATE (TWO PAGES AT 75% WILL COME OUT 8½ x 11 WHEN PRINTED), YOU CAN SAVE THIS WAY TOO. TWO PAGES SUBMITTED SEPARATELY AT THE "75%" RATE WOULD COST YOU $15.50. BUT IF YOU SUBMIT IT ALREADY LAYED OUT ON A SHEET 11 INCHES WIDE BY 15½ INCHES LONG, YOUR COST IS, AGAIN, ONLY $14.00--A SAVINGS OF $1.50.

YOU DISPLAY ADVERTISERS CAN MAKE UP YOUR OWN LAYOUTS TOO USING THE ABOVE MEASUREMENTS, DEPENDING ON HOW MUCH YOU WANT IT REDUCED IN SIZE

DISPLAY ADS: THESE ARE 75¢ per page more and are usually given better locations than classified.

REGULAR DISPLAY (reduced to 1/3 the size) $5.50 per page
75% DISPLAY (reduced to 1/2 the size) $7.75 per page.
SPECIAL DISPLAY (printed as is) $10.75 per page.

When submitting any of the above ads, be sure to specify: "REGULAR", "75%", or "SPECIAL". FULL payment must accompany all ads. Any ads received after any given deadline will be run in the following issue WITHOUT EXCEPTION !!
SEND ALL RBCC ADS AND "SPEED AD" ORDERS TO THE S.F.C.A.

* SPEED ADS *

These ads are not run in the RBCC. These ads are sent out with the orders that we fill. We send out anywhere from 200 to 400 orders per month. About 75% of these orders are from new fans who are answering our various ads which appear constantly in various comics (MARVEL, TOWER, etc.). This means that your SPEED AD will be going out to fans within THREE DAYS, in most cases, after I receive it. Ads to be sent this way can be submitted in 3 ways--READY SHEETS (sheets that you print up and send to the SFCA), stencilled, and un-stencilled.

READY SHEET SPEED ADS: We will send these out for you at the rate of $1.00 per HUNDRED (minimum 200) or $7.50 per 1,000. ADD 75¢ for each additional 100 over 1,000.

STENCILLED SPEED ADS: We will print these up for you and send them out. Use only LEGAL SIZE FOUR HOLE MIMEOGRAPH STENCILS. Observe the margins on the stencil, EXCEPT do not go below line 84. Type fairly hard and do so with your ribbon in off position. THE RATE FOR THESE IS: ONE PAGE 200 COPIES $3.65--add $1.35 for each additional 100. TWO PAGES 200 COPIES $5.05--add $1.75 for each additional 100. THREE PAGES 200 COPIES $7.90--add $2.35 for each additional 100. FOUR PAGES 200 COPIES $9.45--add $3.20 for each additional 100. For larger quantities, write to the editor. WE WILL ALSO PRINT UP COPIES OF YOUR AD AND SEND THEM TO YOU FOR YOUR OWN USE AT THE ABOVE RATES.

UN-STENCILLED SPEED ADS: These can be submitted on paper. We will stencil them, print them up, and send them out for you at the following rate: ONE PAGE 200 COPIES $4.35--add $1.55 for each additional 100. TWO PAGES 200 COPIES $6.40--add $1.70 for each additional 100. THREE PAGES 200 COPIES $8.75--add $2.00 for each additional 100 copies. FOUR PAGES 200 COPIES $11.50--add $3.20 for each additional 100.

ATTENTION ALL DEALERS: WE CAN DISTRIBUTE YOUR CATALOG OR PRICE LIST, VIA OUR "SPEED AD" SERVICE AT A FRACTION OF WHAT IT WOULD COST YOU TO DO THE JOB YOURSELF. JUST SEND US A SAMPLE OF YOUR CATALOG AND HOW MANY COPIES YOU HAVE THAT YOU WANT US TO DISTRIBUTE AND WE WILL QUOTE YOU A PRICE. WE CAN ALSO PRINT YOUR CATALOG FOR YOU AND DISTRIBUTE IT--THE PRICES--SEND FULL DETAILS TO THE S.F.C.A.

THE ODDITY PAGE

By Raymond Miller

Thanks to a few other fans the oddities are growing and we have a larger column this outing.

From Dennis Cunningham comes this one. As many people know, EC's horror mags in the early '50s were the best and most successful of their type. EC's horror and crime titles included: TALES FROM THE CRYPT (started in Jan., 1950), THE VAULT OF HORROR (started in Feb., 1950), THE HAUNT OF FEAR (started in Feb., 1950), CRIME SUSPENSTORIES (started in Oct., 1950), and SHOCK SUSPENSTORIES (started in Dec., 1951). These were doing so well that EC decided to publish another horror title. It was to bear the name of THE CRYPT OF TERROR (which was the original title of TALES FROM THE CRYPT). As most of you know, the horror and crime mags at this time were under fire by the likes of Fredertic Wertham. Although THE CRYPT OF TERROR #1 lead in a few mags, EC was advertised in each of EC's mags, it never got being (well, it did--in a way). When the comics code was formed in 1954, EC soon started to feel the pressure being put on their horror and crime comics. They could no longer get their books distributed because they didn't carry the seal of the Comics Code. Their problem wasn't in selling their comics, but getting them to the readers. Wholesalers and retailers no longer would handle them... thus THE CRYPT OF TERROR was killed before it was born. The contents of that first issue and even the cover, with a change in logo, were put in TALES FROM THE CRYPT #46, THE LAST ISSUE!

Charles R. Smith has no less than 5 oddities for us. ADVENTURE #73 has Sandman drawn in two different styles. In one part, he is drawn in true style with open place face, and the other part in masked Batman style. Lastly, for the fans who never saw Sandman, the mask looked like his face--if you had a blue face. In other words, he had a skin tight blue mask that completely cover his face. But in part of #73 it became a Batman style face covering.

DARE BOOK #42 [illegible] showing 3 [illegible] firing automatic pistols, described as revolvers in the panel heading.

In an early copy of PRIZE COMICS, between #51 and 14, The Black Owl is pictured flying, yet no such power was ever granted to him, now far as I know.

WORLDS FINEST #8 (the Batman story) has Batman addressing National TV audiences. Yet this was several years before the first TV sets were on sale.

TARGET COMICS Vol.2, between #5 and 7 shows the artwork of Bob Wood on the Target and Targeteers seemingly to progress steadily toward the Bob Kane style before a new artistm took over The Target. (Yes Charles, and you are not the first to notice the Wood - Kane similarity. And that new Target artist was none other than our old friend, Bill [illegible] --G.R.M.)

Thanks Charles for your oddity.

Here is a recent one you can find in AVENGERS 36 on page 10. In panel 3 we see an [illegible] holding Cap, yet in the very next panel Natasha states "All of them are held captive except Capt. America." That is a "Boob" of an error.

HAVE YOU GOT A COMIC ODDITY? If so, send it in to Raymond Miller and you will probably see it published in the [illegible]. Send it to:

OLD RADIO TAPES

VERY IMPORTANT POLICY CHANGES. READ CAREFULLY

Due to much demand, We are making all of our recorded shows available separately. That's right, you can order any show we have (although you must order a minimum of 1/2 hour) by itself. But hold on, that's not all! There will be no set prices for sets amount of time. Each show has its own price. For instance if a show runs only 25 minutes, you pay for only 25 minutes, not 1/2 hour. Also, another important change. Because the sound quality varies on everyone's tape, the shows will also be priced according to their sound quality. Therefore if a show has only "fair" sound, you do not have to pay the same amount as a show that has "good" sound. All shows are recorded at 3 3/4 i.p.s. on 5 inch or 7 inch reels depending on time of the shows you order. We can put as much as four hours on a 7 inch reel. We have four 7 inch reels (each with four hours) that are already made up. These can be bought at reduced prices of only $8.00 each. These are listed at the bottom under the heading "C REELS". No more catalogs will be issued. All the shows we have will be listed in our ads, as we acquire more shows, they will be placed in the ad. Our shows are described in four ways, in regard to sound quality. F=fair, P=poor, G=good, VG=very good. Below is the list of all shows now available. After each show is listed the date, if known, the amount of time it is, its sound condition, and the price of the show.

I LIKE COMICS

BY RUSSELL V. COCHRAN, Ph.D.

Like the other great mass media — the press, radio, television, and movies — comics have, like Topsy, "just grown." The first comic books, which consisted entirely of material reprinted from newspaper Sunday "funnies," began to appear in the mid-30's and before the end of the decade had captured the imagination of a nation at the brink of war.

Obviously a national super-hero was needed, and several were immediately provided: the invincible, Superman and Captain Marvel (could Captain Marvel lick Superman? . . . years ago we debated this for hours!), Batman, who was mortal but who always managed to outfight and outwit his foes; and a throng of others with more specialized powers: the Flash, Plastic Man, Submariner, and many more.

Following the war, the comic-reading public demanded new fare, and it was provided, mostly in the form of crime and horror comics. But these books, unlike newspaper comics, the movies, radio or television, were subject to virtually no censorship, and before long a small [illegible] had gathered, their voices raised in a frantic cry to purge the comics industry of these [illegible] "objectionable" comic books.

The result was an investigation of comic books, conducted in 1953 by the Senate Committee on the Judiciary under the chairmanship of Senator Estes Kefauver. Sensing a threat to a free press, the Comics Magazine Association of America, Inc. adopted a Comics Code, which established standards of content for comic books. Treasure Chest became a member.

Starting around 1955, comics which could not meet the code standards were gradually dropped by their publishers (often many distributors and retailers refused to handle comics which did not bear the Comics Code Seal of Approval), and within a few years the Comics Code had successfully removed virtually all objectionable comics from the newsstands.

In my opinion, however, during the early days of the code the reviewers of comic material submitted for approval were perhaps too eager in their zeal to exorcise the comics industry. The result was that many fine comics were refused the Seal of Approval and were forced to an untimely demise. An example of this can be found in a story published in the comic Incredible Science Fiction #33 (1956).

In this story an American astronaut travels to a planet populated by orange robots and blue robots. While it is pointed out that these robots have identical construction, differing only in the color of their metal "skin," the fact remains that on this planet the orange robots are considered socially and ethically superior to the blue robots.

In the final panel of the story the American removes his space helmet and we see that he is a Negro . . . the story is presented dramatically and effectively, and is a solid punch to the conscience [illegible] of the problem of race prejudice.

What did the code examiners object to? To this: the caption for the last panel read, ". . . [illegible] removed his space helmet, and the [illegible] lights made the beads of perspiration on his [illegible] like distant stars . . ." They objected to the idea of a negro perspiring!

It is never difficult to "sell" sensational stories, whether they appear in comic books, magazines, or movies. What is difficult is to produce a story that is not only [illegible], but also entertaining and educational.

Although there is no magic formula for doing this consistently, it has been done. Treasure Chest remains and the comics and movies of Walt Disney are outstanding examples.

Treasure Chest is an unusual comic book. It is at the same time well written, excellently drawn (in some of the finest artists in the field), entertaining and educational. Readers of Treasure Chest are provided a well-rounded diet of good, clean fun, breathtaking adventures (often told in a scientific context), and inspiring excerpts from the lives of great persons. It stands virtually alone among the comics of today as a comic book that is worth reading.

In addition to these, the publisher of Entertaining Comics (which includes the aforementioned Incredible Science Fiction) consistently expanded the scope of the comics format, introducing thought-provoking stories drawn by the greatest comic artists in the business. These stories ranged from horror (in the Poe-Lovecraft tradition) to science fiction (including adaptations of stories by the well-known author Ray Bradbury), and included a series of stories aimed at combating intolerance and prejudice. The entire EC line was dropped because of the Comics Code in its early days, which I feel was unfortunate. But with the weeding out of crime and horror comics, schools and industries began to see possibilities in such an enormously popular medium. Comics were produced to teach scientific principles, safety rules, and even to promote government projects. Just this spring the United States Department of Labor honored Walt Kelly (of Pogo fame) with an Award of Merit, the highest civilian award, for his work in a comic booklet promoting the Neighborhood Youth Corps.

What is art? What is literature? For one thing, they are means of communication. If a Durer can communicate through drawings and a Hemingway through prose, imagine what potential lies in a skillful combination of good drawing and good writing! In the popular newspaper comic Prince Valiant, written and drawn beautifully by Harold Foster, every detail of medieval Europe is authentic, carefully researched by Foster.

Comics, like the other mass media, possess the potential to be either worthless pastimes or valuable educational tools (I will stack my collection of EC comics, Prince Valiant, Buck Rogers, and Flash Gordon strips against 90 per cent of our contemporary television fare anytime!).

John Steinbeck contends that Al Capp, the artist-writer of the satirical comic strip Li'l Abner, is possibly the greatest writer of our time in any format. In his introduction to Capp's book, The World of Li'l Abner, Steinbeck is speaking of Capp:

> "In my claim that Capp is probably the greatest contemporary writer and in my suggestion that if the Nobel prize committee is at all alert, they should seriously consider him, I can [illegible] people who seem to feel that literature is all words and that those words should preferably be a little stuffy. Who knows what literature is? The literature of the Cro-Magnon is painted on the walls of the caves of Altamira. Who knows but that the literature of the future will be projected on clouds? Our present argument that literature is the written and printed word in poetry, drama and the novel has no very eternal basis in fact. Such literature has not been with us very long, and there is nothing to indicate that it will continue to be with us very long [illegible] the way it is going. If people don't read it, it just isn't going to be literature."

Russell V. Cochran, Ph.D.

The author of the article in this reader's guide is a 25-year-old physics professor, Dr. Russell V. Cochran of West Plains, Missouri.

Doctor Cochran teaches theoretical physics and heads the physics department of Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa. He earned his Ph.D. at the U. of Missouri in 1964.

He credits his interest in science to Entertaining Comics, which specialized in science fiction. He has a complete set of EC comics from 1950 to their production in 1956.

Doctor Cochran read comic books from the age of four until he entered college. After he obtained his doctorate, he resumed reading them and began building a collection which [illegible] world wars.

Besides the EC comics, he has all the Buck Rogers Sunday pages from 1930 through 1956, all the Tarzan Sunday pages from 1934 through 1936, and all the Flash Gordon Sunday pages from 1934 through 1937.

He owns about 5,000 other comics ranging from the super-heroes (Batman, Superman, etc.) to Walt Disney's comics and a 10-year run of Treasure Chest.

Doctor Cochran also owns 300 Big Little Books. In the accompanying article he presents an expert's view on comics today and in the past.

WILLIAMSON!

SPACE GHOST was first an HANNA-BARBERA product. That is, a 30 minute animated series produced by HANNA-BARBERA for television. Then, came the comic-book from Gold Key.

SPACE GHOST, "Protector of the Universe," is a [illegible] space-age superhero [illegible]. He shares his adventures with a young boy and girl, plus a monkey: Jace, the boy; Jan, the girl; Blip, the monkey and SPACE GHOST all have the [illegible] power of invisibility. Together, they pursue the [illegible] in the "PHANTOM CRUISER," a [illegible] space vehicle.

Most of SPACE GHOST'S powers are supplied by his POWER BANDS. By just pressing one of these [illegible] buttons on his arm bands, he can [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] villains or [illegible].

On TV, the art is both bold and [illegible]. This animation is quite good. It's [illegible]. ALEX TOTH does layouts, sketches and storyboards for the animation to work from. Mr. Toth, together with Mr. Barbera and one other artist created the initial [illegible] of the SPACE GHOST TV character. [illegible] Alex's name [illegible] artist.

A 30 minute show consists of: SPACE GHOST, DINO BOY and SPACE GHOST. Each of these three parts is a complete [illegible] story. None of them, [illegible] [illegible] type of [illegible].

DINO BOY is a young lad whose adventures take place in a prehistoric valley. DINO has two friends. Bronty is a baby Brontosaurus [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] called, what else? UGH!

The three stories that make up the complete show are very animated and fun [illegible]. This program is for a very young audience and is [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]. The [illegible] is of primary importance. [illegible] story because the art is really VERY GOOD!

Gold Key put the comic-book on sale in December, 1966. It also follows the three segment concept. The comic-book art is [illegible] [illegible] the TV version. Some of these [illegible] stories are found in the comic-book. But then, both are produced for a very youthful audience. SPACE GHOST will not appeal to the teenage or adult reader. [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] Gold Key produces the comic-books and pays H-B a royalty for the use of the characters only.

Number 7 is now on sale: another 48 page issue, with full 4-color wrap-around covers, photo-offset throughout, professional saddle-stitched binding, and other assorted, inflationary features. Inevitably, FI's production costs have risen to the point where I must charge an extra 15¢ per copy to keep the magazine from fading into oblivion. And so, starting with this issue, single copies cost 75¢, with 4-issue subscriptions going for $3.00. All copies mailed in envelopes, as usual. Speaking of mailing, don't forget to include your Zipcode when ordering FI; the Post Office now requires all 3rd Class printed matter to be Zipcoded, and failure to do so can result in both a higher postage rate and, worse, a delay in receiving your copy. Sorry to have to bring up such a mundane topic in my ad, but I still receive a few un-Zipcoded orders. BACK ISSUES: only a very few copies of #6 are available, and as long as the supply lasts I'll send you one for 75¢. If you missed #6 the first time around, here's your chance.

$1.00 for a three-issue subscription

NOVA #1 - This first, fine issue of NOVA contains mystery - "The Elixir of Life" by Jeff Wood; horror - "The Vampire's Revenge" by Bill Bruench; poetry - "Past, Dream Time - LOVE" and "The Will To Live" by Howard [illegible]; and science fiction - "Here Lie the Barbarians" by Robert Hartland.
By traversing a full fiction spectrum, NOVA number one brings to you the finest in fan writing.

NOVA #2 - Again, top-notch amateur fiction is presented in [illegible] most original zine. "The Gods of Galicia," a science fiction thriller by D. Bruce Berry; "[illegible]," a spell binding tale woven by mastery [illegible]; "[illegible]," a touch of detective action by the editors under the pen name Quentin Everett; "Soldier," a story of a future war - and after by Ted [illegible].
This issue is calculated to keep you on the edge of your seat with action, adventure and thought-provoking fiction!

NOVA #3 - In keeping with our first two issues, the third issue continues further superb offerings by talented fans. "The Gods of Galicia - Conclusion," the second and last part of D. Bruce Berry's dramatic tale, followed by "The Horror of [illegible]," a mystery by Quentin Everett, "Point of View," a [illegible] feature by Dan Alderson, and a special, "to be announced" novelette by special guest author [illegible]!
All this adds up to an issue no one will want to miss!

NOVA #4 and #5 are already in preparation, and at least #4 will be published by the time this ad is read. Order NOVA now! 35¢ per single issue [illegible] or $1.00 (one dollar) for a three issue subscription [illegible] Send 35¢ or one dollar now to:

CONTENTS:
FANDOM SPEAKS: Discussion by several pro writers on the different ways of writing comics, salaries, etc.
Ditto
SAGA OF THE GODS: Installment two of one of the wildest strips ever!!
Offset.
COVER: Offset

PLUS FANDOM SPEAKS, OUR NEW LET-ZINE! COMES AS A FREE SUPPLIMENT TO THIS ISSUE ONLY! OR IT CAN BE ORDERED SEPARATELY BY A 5¢ STAMP OR 10¢ IN COIN.

FOR SALE: Model # 80 Offset Press! $125.00

This is a 600 MULTIGRAPH with a 10" by 15" slotted edge plate required. Chrome cylinder for paper masters. 60 volt, AC Motor, with cabinet stand and a set of chemicals.

The bad part is that it needs cleaning and cylinder recalibration--any good mechanic can do it, but I don't have the time with school. For more information write me or ask your local Addressograph-Multigraph man for a free manual.

The victim pays shipping and can bargain for terms, if he wishes. I'd like at least $30 down.

AND NOW HERE IS A WORD FROM OUR CO-PUBLISHERS!!

IN DEPTH

a totally new concept in fanzines.
IN DEPTH: Probes and analyzes one hero or group per issue. IN DEPTH: Provides the most thorough study yet to be found in fandom. IN DEPTH: Digs deeply to bring you a look that's truly IN DEPTH. I.D. boasts an imaginative staff with the know-how and determination to make its concepts solidify. It includes

MARV WOLFMAN	HOWARD WALDROP	and a special
JIM GARDNER	JAY KINNEY	contribution from
ROY THOMAS	GEORGE R.R. MARTIN	RICK WEINGROFF

The editor is Jon Wolf, whose writing has appeared in ODD, Comic Reader and the latest Batmania. He's had letters on comics published in Daredevil and (believe it or not) Partisan Review. Our art department includes Dave Waite, a graduate student at Northwestern whose art is represented above, and Marti Beck, who's currently at Cornell's six- year Ph.D. program. Her letters have seen print in Slam-Bang #4 and in early Fantastic Fours.

Issue #1 is a study IN DEPTH of Stan Lee's Avengers. Don't miss these provocative articles: Comparing Hercules to Babe Ruth, showing how the JLA has more potential than the Avengers, exposing overcrowding in the Avengers, interviewing the Bullpen to see what's going on, and "Hawkeye: The rise and fall of a good idea." available now.

TERMS: All comics in good to mint condition unless otherwise stated (f-fair; p-poor; s-tape; t-taped or cover torn; pages missing). Refunds will be made on any comic found to be not as advertised or not to your satisfaction. Please add 25¢ on all orders under $5.00 to cover postage and handling; we pay postage and handling on orders over $5.00. Prompt refunds on sold items, but please list alternates if possible.

NOTE: I issue a special price list about the first of every month. A copy may be had for a 6¢ stamp. I get hundreds of comics every week so there's a good chance I may have your wants tho' they're not on this list; so send your want list and I'll let you know what I have.

NOTE: I have moved; note my new address. Please excuse any delay in orders you placed around April 1st. I was moving and it took me more than a day to move and rearrange fifteen thousand comics (not to mention my own personal collection). By the time this ad is out, tho, I'll have everything well in order. Thanks.

ATTENTION COLLECTORS

Firstly, my sincere thanks to all who ordered from previous ads and lists - my apologies if a package, letter, or refund was, or is being delayed, but I'm working as hard and as fast as I can. Many thanks for your patience.

My newest list should be ready about the time that this reaches you. It can be obtained by sending me 10¢, cash, or two 5¢stamps(to help pay postage, printing, and the answering of letters of people who fail to enclose a S.A.S.E. with whopping about that for a [illegible]). If, by the time you order, I have not sent you my recent 5 page list, I will also enclose a copy of it. Future lists can be obtained by enclosing just stamps for copies - one stamp for every issuing of a list which you wish to receive. Future lists will cover almost every field - including comics, pulps, science fiction material, and premiums. Lists should be issued at least quarterly, hopefully bi-monthly or monthly. Feel free to specify wants or specific lists, if you don't wish to be bogged down with offers to buy material which you don't collect. Though some laugh at this, the majority of items which I don't collect will be listed at prices at which I am sure they will sell - namely LOW - so, I offer a large amount of items with prices discounted low enough as to make it profitable to buy them just for resale, if not for a personal collection. This is an excellent chance for collectors to build up large amounts of items for trade, or, as I stated before, resale.

OFFICIAL SERVICE OFFERING
By the time this reaches you I will be able to accept ads for a small "adzine". By official decree it will be named UNLIMITED. The whole publication will consist of ads done in photo-offset with NO reduction in size. Copies of UNLIMITED will be available for 25¢ and a 5¢ stamp. I don't expect this to be the greatest thing that has happened since indoor plumbing, but it would be nice if I got enough people to show enough interest to keep it going for a little while.
Rates: all material should be 8½ x 11

Ready Sheets - 75¢ per hundred for one side printing, $1.00 per hundred for 2 side printing. Opening maximum of 100 sheets accepted for the first issue.

Classified ads - These should be submitted on typing paper, white paper of course, and should be "camera ready". $3.00 per side. Artwork can be used. Remember make sure you have your copy exactly as you wish it to appear - any smudges, dirt, etc. will show up, so cover the artwork paste up lines and smudges with white artist paint or typewriter correction fluid. For colored ink add $2.00 set-up charge.

I will also print up your price list for you, although I take a loss doing it, and therefore frown upon the practice. Camera ready copies at $5.00 per 250 copies, printed on 1 side. $6.00 for 500 copies of one side printed.

Any fanzine editor wishing to have his zine reviewed in my column in the fanzine BOMBSHELL should send a copy of the zine and his written permission for me to do a critical, unbiased review. BOMBSHELL, a good fanzine, can be obtained by sending $.40 to BOMBSHELL & BOMBSHELL C/O. TRADE CENTER, Rover's Branch Street, 1346 [illegible] Ave., Huntington, West Virginia 25704. Send the zines to me, the orders to THE T.C. TRADE CENTER mentioned above.

A COMICOLLECTOR * Bonus Feature *

Old Comic Books Were Best, Milwaukee Collector Claims

By PATRICIA L. KLEIBER
Of The Journal Staff

Ask anyone and he'll say that Donald Duck hasn't changed since 1936. But according to a 22 year old comic book collector with more than 1,000 to his name, comics aren't what they used to be.

George Schwartz, 5470 N. 68th st., a junior at the University of Wisconsin—Milwaukee, has been collecting since he was 6. He prefers the older comics because of their "superior quality."

"They've got much better art, brighter colors, smaller pictures. They made a villain look like a villain," he said.

Actually, this is the second time around for Schwartz. When he was 12 his doctor ordered that his entire collection of more than 1,000 comics be burned because a friend who had read the books with him had been stricken with polio. The doctor said that the books had been contaminated.

His present collection leans toward the super heroes — Batman, Superman and Plastic Man to mention a few. Schwartz' most prized and valuable book is a 1954 edition of a Batman comic.

"Since his revival in the television series, old Batman comics have become quite valuable," said Schwartz.

The first Batman comic, issued in 1935, is now worth more than $100.

"The most interesting thing about comics is that you can follow history with them," said Schwartz.

His collection includes a Superman comic from the 40's in which Superman conquers Mussolini. In another, the Grim Reaper fights Hitler.

Most comics from the 1940's were devoted to the war, and many contained editorials on the war or carried slogans such as:

"Don't Give In, Don't Stop Your Saving, Until the Japs and Germans Cave In."

Art styles are the most important element of comic books, according to Schwartz.

"The older the comic, the better the art. I don't like a comic in which everyone looks the same," he said.

Schwartz collects about 40 comics a month, and then numbers each one, classifies it and tries to repair it to it's original condition.

He confessed that he hasn't read all his comics, especially those collected in the last few years.

"Since I started college, it's all I can do to keep them classified and get them in good condition," he said.

He has several foreign editions of Roy Rogers, Batman and Superman comics. These comics differ from the American versions in that they use photographs rather than drawings.

Schwartz said that he tries to keep away from war, love and horror comics unless they're very old.

"They don't have good art styles and the stories are trite," he said.

FLASH GORDON ? ? ? A group of fine and interesting comic-book artists have had a hand in the rebirth of the NEW Flash Gordon ! The list so far, includes: Bolle, Estrada, Kane, Sigrid, Williamson, Wood and coming soon... Reed Crandall might add his talent to this impressive line-up.

The evening after I read the new FG #4, I had this WILD dream ! In the dream, I was reading a copy of a future issue of King's new Flash Gordon drawn by...KING KIRBY !!! Ole' Flash looked something like this.

You know how dreams are...fuzzy, distorted and hard to remember ? This drawing is the best I could do in my attempt to recapture that fleeting mental image.

THE GREAT DATA CONTEST OF 1967

The prizes of a lifetime can be yours.

FIRST PRIZE: A starter collection of original comic art--
10 full pages from 10 different strips.

5 SECOND PRIZES: 2 full pages of original art (valued at over $25.)

The art will be from such top strips as Magnus, Elongated Man, Atom, Hourman-Dr. Fate, Dr. Solar, JLA-JSA, Flash, Phantom, Tarzan, Doom Patrol, Metamorpho, Batman, and others. The art will be awarded to the contestants who submit the most entries in the Great Data Contest of 1967. IMPORTANT: To be counted, entries must comply with ALL the rules listed below.

CONTEST RULES:

(1) Contest open only to PANELOLOGIST subscribers. (For issues #1-8 of THE PANELOLOGIST, send $1.00 to the address below.)

(2) All data must be supplied on 3"x5" index cards. Put your name on the back of each card to receive credit. Legibility is essential, so type or print data.

(3) Each entry shall include the following data for any one of the comics magazine issues "WANTED" by THE PANELOLOGIST:
Title, issue, date, year, publisher, total no. of pages, cover features, list of all strips plus no. of pages of each, and (if supplied in comic) names of editors, writers, and artists of each strip.
List no more than one issue per index card. If two or more cards are needed, staple them together.

(4) Submit cards as soon as they are completed. The first correct card to be submitted is the one that counts. All entries must be received by July 31, 1967.

(5) Mail all entries to:
Jerry and Jean Bails, (Great Data Contest of 1967),
P.O. Box 7499, North End Station, Detroit, Mich. 48202

OUR ADDRESS

Winners' names will be published in THE PANELOLOGIST.
